We hope that our friends in every county will, at once, take steps to be ; presented in that conven tion by full delegations. State rights and the rights that the firing" at Charleston, "took place be pose Black Republicanism, Federalism and civil war, to buckle on their armour for the contest. Le us be up and doing.

Anti-Coercion Meeting.

Another adjourned meeting of all Anti-Coercion men will be held at the Courthouse this evening at 71 o'clock. Come one! Come all!!

NASHVILLE AND NORTHWESTERN RAILROAD-WEST-EEN DIVISION .- Mr. E. CULVERBOUSE, the Superintendent of the Western Division of the Nashville and Northwestern Railroad, states that passenger trains will commence running on and after the 15th inst. between Hickman, Ky., and McKenzies, the junction of the Memphis and Ohio and Railroad, connecting with the Lightning Express from Memphis. The passenger train will leave Hickman at 6 A. M., ar. riving at Nashville at 7 P.M., Louisville at 11:20 P. M., and Cincinnati at 6:40 next morning. By this arrangement the time from 'Hickman, Ky., to Nash ville will be 13 hours instead of 24 hours; to Louiswille 17 instead of 29; and to Cincinnati 24 instead of 36 hours.

OFF FOR MONTGOMERY .- Col. Busce, of this paper and Gen. Philow left for Montgomery Sunday after.

FREIGHTS .- We are gratified in being able to state that the accumulation of freights for shipment by the Nashville and Chattanooga Railroad has all been sent off, and that the road is now up with the demands upon it in this respect. The delay was caused by the damage to the Western and Atlantic Railroad during the freshets in February, and the heavy stream of freights that has since poured drip and soft hats, caps and straw goods, corner of in has taxed the road to its utmost capacity. The Cedar and Cherry streets. road is now up with the work and freights will ex perience no delay nor be subject to extra charges for storage and drayage. Mr. Cole, the energetic Superintendent, and his assistants have been untiring in their efforts to clear their depets, and they have now succeeded, and will be able to keep them clear for the future.

Capt. Thomas H. TAYLOR, formerly of this city but now of the Army of the Confederate States, returned to this city yesterday on his way to Kentucky. We have heard it hinted that he is on a recruiting expedition.

A RAINT DAY .- Yesterday was a rainy, disagreesele day, a cold rain having continued to fall, with chort intervals, during the day.

The Meeting Last Night.

disturb the universal accord of sentiment.

The meeting was addressed by R. B. CHEATHAM. Mayor of the city of Nashville and a member of the Legislature, a devoted Union man up to the inauguration of war by the tyrants and usurpers at Washington.

It would be impossible in this brief notice to do justice to his remarks. We shall attemp: no sk etch. wa sapplauded throughout, but there was one point at which the audience seemed almost frantie with excitement. It was a part of his duty, he said, to disperse all illegal assemblies, and LINCOLN had commanded all assemblies conspiring against of Dyspepsia. the Government in its offer to subjugate the Southern States to disperse within twenty days. But if at the end of that time he should find there or at once become apparent to those acquainted with mly would be not disperse them, but with all his eart he would cheer them on to the conflict, and | this or the old country, at the present day. bad them God speed in the righteous cause in which they were engaged.

Gen. MOORE, a Captain in the war of 1812 under Gen. JACKSON, was called to the speakers' stand. His voice, now tremulous with age, went to the hearts of his audience as he recounted the perils and the valient deeds of the fathers of some of those then present, and invoked them as they loved the dead who died in the sacred cause of liberty, as they loved their county and their country's one, two, three and four dozen, two dollars and fifty honor, to stand foward now as one man to resist at whatever cost and whatever peril, aggressions upon our rights, and an unholy war upon our Southern brethren, fighting as they were for our rights, our interests, our safety, our honor, as well as their own.

We regret that we have not space to notice in de tail, the eloquent appeal of Col. Fazzea, the lucid exposition of Col. V. K. STEVENSON, of the wrongs which we have endured with so much patience at the hands of the North, the refreshing "speech of Mr. W. G. BRIEN, now humorous, then sarcastic, and ever and anon brilliant with etoquence, and the handsome snamer in which some younglMississippian, whose name we learn, not have expressed his thanks to the meeting for the sympathy they had expressed for the seceded States, and pledging to them in advance a cordial welcome to the family of Confederate States, should we in defense of a common cause feel that our interest required us to take such a

The Rev. J. B. McFERRIN, who happened to be present, was called for so vociferously and continuously that he at last stepped upon the platform, but without mounting the stand from which others had spoken, excuesd himself from speaking because of his vocation, but assured the assembly of his profound sympathy, and his devout prayer to God for auccess of the right.

During the evening the following resolutions were presented and adopted without a dissenting

A motion was made to adjourn until Wednesday evening, but the crowd would not listen to it, and the Chair was not able to put the question but by changing to Tuesday, this evening. As the crowd dispersed in various directions, in the midst of the rain, which still continued to pour down, a thousand cheers rent office. the air for Southern independence. Again we say, there has been nothing like it before in the city of Nashville.

Meeting of Bock City Guards. At a meeting of the Rock City Guards, held April 15, 1861, the following preamble and resoutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, Authentic intelligence has reached this city that a bloody civil war has actually commenced in consequence of the ill-advised acts of the admintration now in power in the city of Washington and whereas, the causes which have brought on this deplorable conflict are such as equally involve the honor, the interests, and the safety of all the slave holding States of the Confederacy; and whereas, we have just been advised that military movements are now in progress in several of the non-slavehold-ing States of the North, looking to the subjugation and ruin of the Seceded States, and to the ultimate truction of the domestic institutions of the whole

South; therefore, be it

Resolved, That as citizens of the South, identified with the Confederate States by all the ties of blood, affection, institutions and interest, the Rock City Guards do oppose and will oppose to the last extremity, any and all such aggres ons upon the rights of the South, whether made upon the soil of essee or elsewhere.

The Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette telegraphs "that there is general surprise of the South will be seriously endangered by the fore the arrival of the floet." Old Aug expected triumph of our opponents. It behooves all who opfirst time he has been mistaken in their sagacity.

> An intelligent and reliable gentleman of Wes Tennesse informs us that at least forty lawyers, leading and influential men, of his acquaintance in that portion of the State, heretofore "Union" men, have come out unqualifiedly for the South within a week past. The Huntingdon Patriot of the 12th says: "We cannot safely calculate that because a man is for the 'Union' to-day, he will surely be found battling for it to-morrow." The tide has set in with a powerful flow, and the strongest Union men of yesterday are the most enthusiastic Southern Rights men of to-day.

THE BOMBARDMENT AT CHARLESOTN .- A detailed account of the bombardment at Charleston the 12th. will be found on the first page of to-day's paper. The Davis Guards are advertised to leave Louis ville to-day for the seat of war in the South. The Cincinnati Gazette says "the laws must be en orced." and calls on the border slave States to stand neutral, "if they will not take sides with the Government." [What response have the gallant sons of Tennessee to this infamous proposition? ANOTHER FOR THE SOUTH .- We learn that probably the strongest Union man in Tennessee, Capt. Driver, admits now that the only practical question is North or South, and of course he is for the South.

COTTON—We stated in our last weekly review that the movement was checked towards the close, both by scant supplies and the stringent pretensions of factors. On Saturday the demand was limited, the causes referred to in our preliminary remarks alone compelling buyers to stand alost, and the sales were confined to 1,000 bales at rather tasier rates. On Monday the advantage was still more in favor of huyers, and 2,800 bales changed hands at irregu ar prices, indicating an unsteady market and a downward tendency. On Tuescay 1 500 bales were taken at still casier rates. On Wednesday there was rather more lequiry, but the advantage continued on the side of the bayer, and the sales, which comprised 2 250 bales, were mostly on the basis of 124,00 124,00 hales danged hands at figures showing still more trregu larity; while to-day there was some inquiry, but mostly at a greater refunction in prices than factors would submit to, and the sales did not exceed 2,000 hales.
